Date of Application: 5/13/11

Name of Applicant: Lyn Wolz

Title and brief description of your project:

Copyright fees for my articles to be placed in KU ScholarWorks and for illustrations to be placed in the volume of the Missouri Folklore Society Journal I am editing.

Describe the planned result / final outcome of your project:

A double issue of the Missouri Folklore Society Journal

A complete set of my publications in the KU ScholarWorks repository

List previous LRF awards you have received. For each one, summarize what you achieved using that money; e.g. articles published or papers presented.

1999 – Help with travel expenses to London for research into the Gilchrist Collection at the English Folk Dance and Song Society’s Vaughan Williams Memorial Library.

Results:

1. An article on Anne Geddes Gilchrist in the peer-reviewed Folk Music Journal.

2. Catalogue and index of Gilchrist’s papers and her folk song collection, which were used as the basis for the Gilchrist portion of the “Take Six” Project online database.
   [ http://library.efdss.org/archives/cgi-bin/search.cgi# ]
Explain how you used the funds:  [ Receipts attached ]

Missouri Folklore Society Journal

Copyright fee for “The Wittam Miller” woodcut, Bodleian Library, Oxford University
£15.00  [ $24.50 ]

Copyright fee for “The Charivari” (silhouette) from the original artist = $20.00

KU ScholarWorks

Copyright fee for my article in the book Folk Song: Tradition, Revival, and Re-Creation (Elphinstone Institute, University of Aberdeen)
£36.00  [ $58.50 ]

Total reimbursement requested = $103.00

Give an estimated timeline for the completion of this project:

Vol. 27-28 of the Missouri Folklore Society Journal will be published in the fall.

My publications will all be placed into KU ScholarWorks by the end of June.

If any part of your project is dependent upon a contractual or other financial arrangement with a third party, please provide a copy of the agreement outlining the services to be provided and the estimated cost.

Not applicable.

This portion to be completed by the chair of CRSA

Funded:  Yes  No

If partially funded, give amount and reason(s):

If denied, give reason(s):